

Duncan's English Course for Teachers and Researchers

(1st .Oct. 2013)

1. Strategic Target of the Course

- 1) Promotion of international study with an overseas university, and international cooperation.
- 2) Achievement of English proficiency such as communication, presentation, debate, and lecturing in English in graduate school.

2. Requirements

- 1) Teachers and researchers (graduate students) of the University of Miyazaki
- 2) To provide an opportunity to give a presentation or lecture in English.
- 3) Enhance international study and international cooperation.
- 4) To support the activities of the Center for International Relations such as international exchanges and positive international cooperation, to practice your English.
- 5) To attend the class regularly.
- 6) To report your international activity on your job or research, after the course.

3. Lecturer

Duncan Butland

"Education is not the filling of a bucket, but the lighting of a fire."

Place of Birth: Whangarei, New Zealand.

Academic: M.A. (hons),

Language Teaching and Learning, the University of Auckland.

<http://www.helloenglish.jp/>

4. Place & Time

Class Room:

Lecture room in the Center for International Relations

Class length

The length of a one class is 1 hour per week. The course has 3 different classes depending on English level. The time of each class is different. Please let us know your preferred day and time in the letter of application.

5. Expenses

- Course fee: No charge
- Textbook: No charge (but you may need to purchase text book.)

6. Entry & Contact Address

Please submit the filled up letter of application to the below address

E-mail: itoken@cc.miyazaki-u.ac.jp

Kenichi Ito, Center for International Relations

Tel: 0985-58-7851